Woman sues former employer for religious discrimination

MATT WAGNER

Posted online December 3, 2006 | 11:00 pm

A Springfield woman has alleged in a federal lawsuit that she was fired in 2004 from a Branson West company for refusing to convert to Scientology, the chosen religion of her boss and several co-workers. Brianne Shahan filed the suit against Richmond Monroe Group Inc. in U.S. District Court last month. Shahan claims her former employer violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 by allegedly pressuring her to divorce her husband and become a Scientologist.

According to its Web site, the Church of Scientology is based on the writings and philosophy of the late L. Ron Hubbard, who believed that humans are “immortal, spiritual beings” with unlimited capabilities.

The church has targeted Hollywood celebrities and converted such actors as Tom Cruise and John Travolta.

Defendant: It’s groundless

Richmond Monroe’s attorneys – Paul King of Springfield and Jay Kirksey of Bolivar –denied Shahan’s claims in a formal response filed Nov. 30 and characterized the suit as “frivolous, unreasonable and groundless.”

According to its Web site, Richmond Monroe retrieves lost documents for the mortgage loan service industry along with its partner companies, American Release Corp., also in Branson West, and software manufacturer Rekon Technologies, in Valencia, Calif.

Shahan claims in the suit she was subjected to a “field auditor,” who attempted to convert her to Scientology on a daily or almost daily basis while working at the Branson West office, 15511 State Highway 13.

Shahan also claims she was forced by her employer to attend daily “church” sessions at work and that she was urged to divorce her husband.

Springfield attorney Eric Jensen of O’Reilly & Jensen LLC is representing Shahan.

“The defendant tried to force the plaintiff to divorce her husband because they believed he was a ‘suppressive personality,’ meaning in their view, he was possessed by an evil alien life form,” Jensen stated in the suit.

Neither Kirksey nor Jensen returned Springfield Business Journal’s calls before press time.

Shahan’s claims, if true, would be clear violations of Title VII, said Wes Scroggins, an assistant professor of management at Missouri State University’s College of Business Administration.

“If that actually happened, they have greatly overstepped their bounds,” Scroggins said, suggesting the alleged scenario borders on harassment.

Shahan was fired Nov. 1, 2004 – three days after notifying her superiors, including President Larry Roberts, that she would not divorce her husband or convert to Scientology, according to the suit. She later filed a religious discrimination complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, which issued a right-to-sue letter earlier this year.

EEOC issues a right-to-sue letter when an investigation reveals there likely isn’t enough evidence to substantiate a complainant’s discrimination charge, said Sharron Blalock, a spokeswoman for the commission’s St. Louis District Office.

According to the suit, Shahan was fired for a “lack of production” in her department even though it was “quite profitable” when she was terminated. The suit also notes that she received numerous pay raises and promotions before she was fired.

Uncommon case

Title VII explicitly prohibits employers from forcing employees to participate – or not participate – in religious activity as a condition of employment. It also forbids employers from treating employees or applicants more or less favorably because of their religious beliefs or practices.

Employees who experience religious discrimination in the workplace should first file a grievance with the human resources department if one exists, Blalock said.

“Then you have a record you voiced the complaint,” she said.

If little or no progress is made, Blalock recommends contacting an EEOC investigator for further guidance. If the discrimination continues, employees are encouraged to file a formal complaint. Depending on the evidence, complaints may be dismissed, flagged for mediation or investigated, Blalock said.

Formal complaints from employees alleging religious coercion by their employer are rare in the St. Louis District, Blalock said. Complaints about employers unwilling to accommodate an employee’s religious beliefs or customs are more common, she said.

In fiscal 2005, EEOC received 2,340 charges of religious discrimination nationally, resolved 2,352 charges and recovered $6.1 million in monetary benefits – not including litigation – for complainants and other aggrieved individuals. Blalock did not have numbers available for the St. Louis District. [[In-content Ad]]

My Story by Kathy Gold

Hanover Funding

I started working there in 1987 or 1988, I had an interview with Stephen Goldfield, the owner. He hired me directly. I first started working in the loan servicing department. I was only there for a short time. The manager, not a scientologist and the woman that worked there not a scientologist, were having an affair and embezzling money from Hanover.

So the owner, brought back another woman who was a scientologist who worked there before. I believe the other two people went to jail.

Me and Stephen had an agreement that if I did highest evers, I would get a raise. A bonus. I was making only $1800.00 a month. I was like 21 or 22. The woman before me, a scientologist, Terry Novitsky, left to go work with her husband. I took that department from a 2 man department and expanded it into a 20 person department. My department was closing loans on a regular basis.

Stephen Goldfield's personal secretary hatted me on Simon Bolivar, it was in the OEC Vol 7, for Executives.

I didn't hold the loan officers or investment counselors hostage or try to run a weird power trip on them. I understood, that if their loans didn't close, they wouldn't be able to eat, pay their rent, mortgage etc etc.

We all worked as a team, the entire company. I even got a staff award, staff member of the week. That was nice. After I broke records, Stephen Goldfield was not there, he was constantly out of town, doing whatever. It was his organization, we just did our thing, our jobs.

I got a bonus, my staff, including non scientologists all pulled together as a team and we turned things around, we flourished and prospered. We went for about 3 months without pay. We didn't give up, we made it go right. The lady that was head of the management team, Charlene, gave me a bonus. She came to me, months prior and said, what do you need and want in order to make this target, so I told her and she supplied me with the resources I needed. So I made my target, we all played a game. She honored her agreement with me.

<http://www.scientologyforyou.info/scientologydox/File0004.PDF>

After Stephen Goldfield came back, he freaked out, I didn't know why at the time, I found out later, but he had a policy on his books that nobody that was salary would ever make more than $2k a month. So when he entered into the original agreement with me, he was lying. He knew and he didn't care.

He started firing people left and right, Simon Bolivar, take out mode. This was his group, we all broke records, made that company a shit load of money and he rewarded people by firing them. Ok. It was quite disturbing. I saw what he did to Janet in the loan department, I knew I was next. So, I went to work for Dean Glossup, as his assistant. He was a loan officer and an investment counselor.

We were all hatted on Simon Bolivar. Larry Roberts gave me the heads up when I got my last check. I also knew he was right and it was my last check. I just knew. So I left, quit.

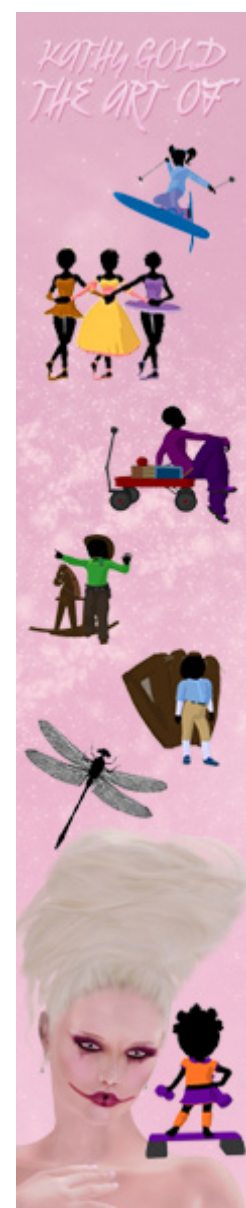

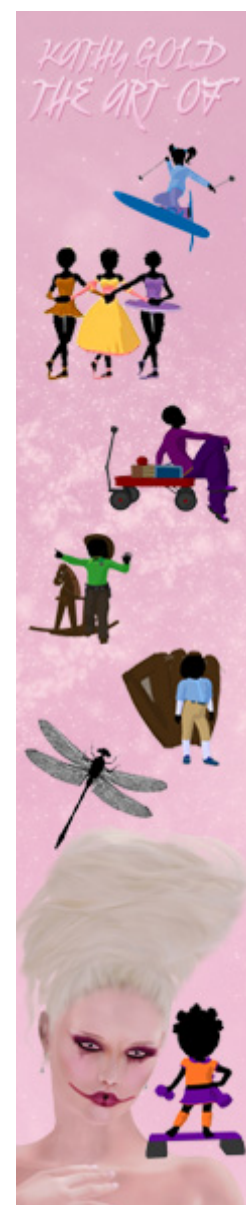

The next week, when I called for my last paycheck, they were getting closed down by the IRS for non payment of their payroll taxes.

I thought to myself, how am I gonna go up a bridge at $2k a month, purchase a house, have a family etc etc. You can't. When I was the manager of the Loan Processing Dept, I was making $2300.00 a month, when I left that post, and moved over to being Dean's assistant, I was getting $2000.00 a month.

And now in 2012, you can't even buy a house with that money. There is no hope to come up the conditions and do the right thing, help mankind here on planet earth, target 1. Cross the Wall of Fire and get to target 3, that's where the real game starts.

To David Miscavige, we are just promo, marketing cycles, he doesn't value human life, like other people. They only care about money. Let their souls get fused and en-tombed into this rock, it's all ok. This was the major plan for everybody lol they just got it wrong lol.

Updated 7/14/2012 When I was working there, I was running case, I didn't get what it was then, but now I do. Mike Dawson was a new guy hired. He came in and started fucking with everybody that was productive, even my area, this was after I did highest evers. He too wanted credit and take over the area. With his clipboard. I on the other hand started running case, with emotions. The images were what looked like the Vietnam war, only I was never in Vietnam. I spotted Dawson, he got his people killed, he was like some captain dude, I was a woman, I didn't listen, and the people that did, got killed based on his orders. Me and the others that didn't listen to him, that refused, we survived. He was a pencil pushing exec with a limp dick ol. They love to give orders and get people killed. It's no skin off their nose. I don't think he'll be getting off this rock. His 1.1. ways and his enturbulation of coming into my area and trying to steal it for himself, pretty much did the trick. LMAO Remember I took that area from a 2 man department and expanded it, into a 20 man department, a working installation and this asshole wanted it for himself, just like Lisa. Anybody can fuck someone over and take their job but not everybody can take that job and really do it, get products. This was before I attested to the state of Clear. I'm a last life Clear.

So, while crossing the wall of fire, I figured that out too, my military wholetrack, Pre Earth. lol LMAO, Come on you apes, you wanna live forever, ground floor, troops with me. Let these idiots, pencil pushing execs with limp dix spin around lol <http://youtu.be/MM0BiOjd3hs> <http://youtu.be/C0RF8-2bj-s> In real life, sometimes you have to put your life on the line so that your crew, your team will survive, Code Of Honor. Not that big of a deal, just go pick up another body and continue playing, hee hee. The trick is to not die and save your team, your crew. <http://youtu.be/0LxJ1ESkmrs> <http://youtu.be/Z34qxnD4TSo>

To Larry Roberts, Dean Glossup, Jerry Carl and Leslie Roberts, how does it feel to know you are all fucked? LMAO. Super Power isn't gonna get you off this fuckin rock, deal with it. Money's great but it's not gonna help your soul. What did any of you do to make this world a better place? Actions? Not a damn thing other than throw money at it. Oh well, not my fuckin problem. You'll all be coming back to a dying planet, your 2d is cut here on planet earth. But listen to your master, David Miscavige LMAO <http://youtu.be/K6RUg-NkjY4> http://youtu.be/h0R_FR9pD2k notice her tongue, snakes, ophiuchus, we are the authority on mental health and Implant stations are going back, it's for the greatest good for the number of dynamics across the boards. <http://youtu.be/chBtFyMP2SA>

I know, that lawsuit above was bullshit. Nobody forces anybody to convert to Scientology. It's a choice, that criminal who filed that lawsuit along with her attorney, just know, their souls will be fused and en-tombed into this rock for the next 1 billion years. Money. Cause that's all that bitch cared about. LMAO

What Scientology For You is About What Scientology For You is not about My Story by Kathy Gold

Larry and Leslie Roberts

I met them at Hanover. I became their adopted daughter. Larry wanted me to handle Kim his daughter. She was being a spoiled brat about something. Why he assumed I could handle her, is beyond me. Oh that's right, we're both Sag's.

Larry and Leslie's big thing at work, constantly being told, I need to get a 2d, a stable 2d ok LMAO Maybe now that I'm not part of this church I will LMAO.

This was the 3rd dynamic, why they were bringing this into the workplace is weird. Everybody had an adopted kid at work, Stanley Gainsforth, his was that preppy guy, tall, blonde hair dude. I can't remember his name.

Jennifer and Gerry Carle was Maritza (not a scientologist, years later she was on the run for embezzling money from another escrow company in Santa Monica) the escrow officer downstairs. Jennifer was the president of the escrow company.

Dean Glossup's was Brynn Hancock (and Brynn, she's married to another Scientologist, she was weird ok, she thought she knew it all cause she went to a Scilon school, one where she had a lesbian affair)

While I was working at Hanover, I had alot of randomness, see expanding an area from 2 people into 20 takes a lot of fuckin work, it doesn't happen overnight nor do the salaries just magically appear.

I was working my ass off, till about 7:00pm Mon-Friday, then slept on the weekends to catch up. I was so busy working, I didn't notice Mr. Preppy dude, he wanted to get with me, a set up. I got a best staff award for one week thing, I caught his eye, big fuckin deal, he was Stan's assistant. I think he moved out to Palm Springs with some older lady or something. I don't know and I don't give a fuck, I just know that Stan is dead.

In 1998 Aug of, I reached out to Stan, I got in comm with him. So Larry, I already know, you know that I got fucked and you nor Leslie gave a fuck, you contributed to the Super Power project.

While crossing the wall of fire, at the very beginning 2009, I called and spoke to Leslie LMAO. I found out where Larry was on the bridge, he was on OT8 and Miscavige took him off that level and put him back to OT7. I decided to play a little game with my dad from another life. So I left a message for him. Just one, I never called them ever again. I know he was pissed cause I was getting mental image pictures of him but they were hard, and every where I was going, I would see him but he wasn't there ok, my nose started bleeding. So I started writing, KR's up to Int management. It cleared up, right away, I realized, it was the right thing to do, Ethics. Larry always said, you can cross the wall of fire, anybody can, just by using your ethics book, so I did.

And I ran into Dean's wife at the Valley org, Dean just finally got done with OT7, after all these years ok LMAO. So who's taken who for a ride? I crossed the wall of fire and it didn't cost me an arm and a leg.

I know Dean told you, that I ran into his wife, I was asking her about work, she's selling her shit at costco and I got your enturbulation in the theta universe. I know both of you were talking about me, making fun of me, wow, look how she turned out. This was in early 2009. I'm not a fool asshole, I'm OT. But you people are like nattery little ants.

At London Financial, while I was there, I had to go in there on Larry's orders to product officer the asian broker, he flipped out and physically picked me up and threw me out of his office, where I landed on the floor. Not one person at London Financial did anything, they all watched, Leslie laughed, she thought it was funny.

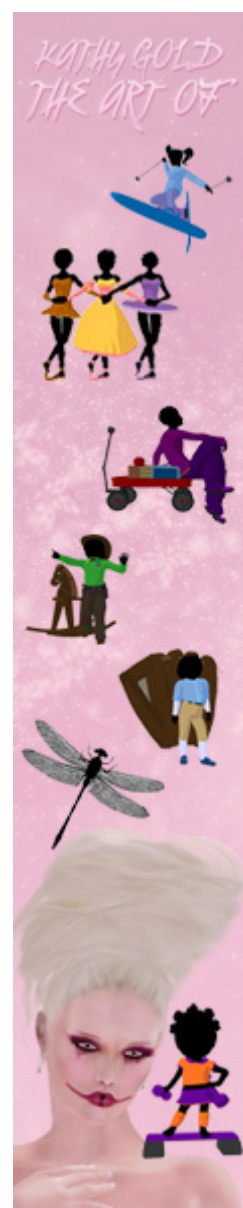

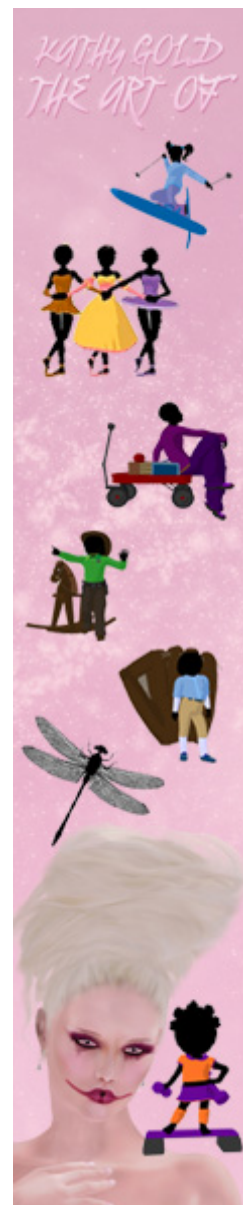

I on the other hand zipped it. I got up and remembered that moment in time. I lived at Larry and Leslie's house in Valenica, I paid them rent. They were the only thing I ever had to a stable 2d. A family. Their son, Nick, I bonded with him and we went to Magic Mountain. He was like the little brother I never had. We also played video games, watched tv, ate dinner with the folks while Kim was at her friends house, she slept over alot. So it was just the 4 of us.

Kim was busy playing her drama rama games with boys, I never bonded with Kim on any level. I lived at Leslie and Larry's house for about 6 months.

Marie, she was the new loan processor at London Financial, she assumed I wanted her job. I did it better then she ever could. She lived in Palmdale with her husband, and she got raped when she was younger, she told me in confidence, I told Larry, it came up in a comm cycle. I don't know what she said to Larry, but something set him off and he started yelling at me. I just passed my test for my real estate license, I invested alot of time into getting this done and becoming a loan officer. I was at home and he called and started yelling at me, we got into a big fight, I can't remember why, Leslie asked me the next day, that morning, are you going into work and I said no, she was like ok.

I packed up my shit and left. I never spoke to them ever again. This was around the same year/ time I went back to school for my computer degree. Maybe 6 months in between,

My mother on the other hand wanted to know what happened and started interrogated me in 1998 after I moved back to her home. It's a weird thing to do after you almost died ok.

I remember in Valencia, there were problems with the neighbors, they were Christians, and started talking shit about Larry and his family because they were Scientologists. So they ended up moving.

Middle class heaven, drama rama, bitchy neighbors.

I liked Larry and Leslie, they have a high confront of evil. That one incident at work, doesn't erase how good they were to me, I loved both of them, they were the only stable 2d I've had this life. I also remembered while crossing the wall of fire, Leslie was my mom in past lives with Larry. I just never saw Leslie as a mom, more like a best friend. Jenna was my sister in a past life where Larry and Leslie were our parents. I was the good daughter, Jenna the stripper, Larry had to handle. LMAO.

We're all Marcab. We can handle the punches, 1 is ok, they're not abusive, they just have a high confront of evil. They don't give a fuck about money, they would die first for their kids. I'm not their kid now in present time.

This is Larry and Leslie's company <http://www.richmondmonroe.com/> they have achieved their goals, their admin scale.

Their daughter Kim works there too. <http://www.richmondmonroe.com/Management.AspX>

BTW, are you guys going to target 2 or target 3? How will your children survive? GMO's get it, this civilization is ending, time to go.

And Larry's Twin was Kirstie Alley on OT3 LMAO He didn't even know who she was. Larry and Leslie were pirates LMAO per them. In present time Larry was an Army Ranger, he did go to Vietnam and loved it LMAO.

And both Dan Pesta and India worked at London Financial before I got there, Larry didn't like Dan, he thought Dan got shitty products, he did like India, she got products, she left London and went into the Sea Org.

And how is the country club life, Leslie? Was it everything you ever thought it would be and more? LMAO I don't do country club, it's so passe.

Updated July 21, 2013

I remember when we were hiring, all sorts of people came in to work. We didn't discriminate, scilons, non, all races, religions, my second was Virginia, she was mexican and she ran the investment couselfors, got the money in.

Anyway, so the area is expanding, and I had a bunch of assistants, I hatted them all, trained them all. They were quite impressed with me. I had my lines in with everybody, even the IRS, I could just pick up the phone, call the IRS and get a demand statement, within 15 minutes faxed over. My girls were very impressed cause when they tried to do that, they couldn't get the same results.

So, this one girl, she was nice, a little too nice, and wanted to hang out. I was like ok. Her boyfriend worked there too, both non Scientologists. They invited me over to their house. I was like ok, you know I was young, early 20's. They wanted to go to the movies or something, led me to believe there was a party at their house. When I got there, it was just the two of them. I thought it was weird, where is everybody else? Oh it's just us two. Ok. The next thing I know this bitch is going on about how she needs to change, get into something more comfortable. So while he's talking to me, she goes and changes and comes out in a robe. I was thinking to myself WTF? These weirdos are trying to do a threesome, I saw the set up. I split. I told them, I gotta go.

So then the next day at work, they were like creating problems, drama. I picked up they wanted to set me up sexually and then sue the company ie blackmail for money. Their little plan never happened, I never engaged in their bullshit. Instead, they both blew, after Larry told him to fuck off LMAO Imagine that, no lawsuit. Criminals looking for a buck. They assumed cause we were Scientologist's we could be set up so easily. I'm sure Larry picked up on it, they're computation and I also told him, gave him confirmation, cause that guy was afraid of Larry.

Updated December 17, 2013

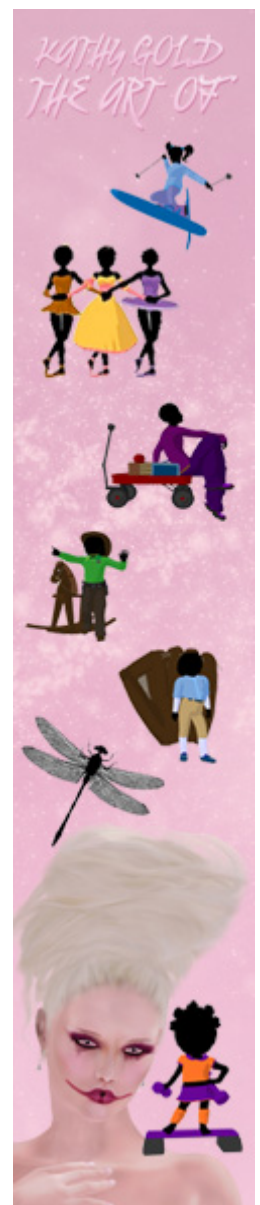

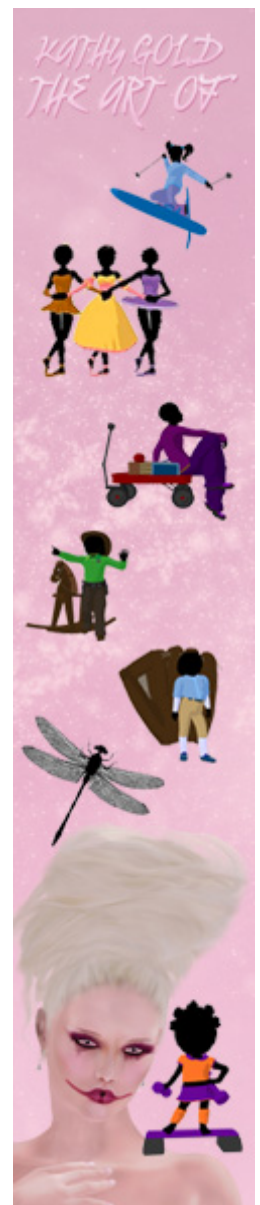

I cognited. I've had more then one past life with Larry and Leslie, where they were my parents by DNA, inlaws, where Larry was my Dad with another female and Leslie was my mom with my dad in present time Mob LMAO.

The life above was just me, Larry and Leslie and Jenna Jamison. I was the good daughter. Larry had to go handle Jenna and her bullshit. Marcab days. Larry was a cop on the force.

When Larry and Leslie were in my life, I always felt like Larry was a dad and I felt like his family was my family. I also felt like somebody was missing. I realized in a past life, they were my in laws and I was married to their son. His first kid. Same kids now but with one missing. I already pulled him in online, we've never met this life and I don't think we will, different paths, journey plus he's a wog, not a scientologist. He's superficial, low on the tone scale and I'm up in the games band.

In that life, Harvey Weinstein was my dad, and I had three sisters, we were all Jewish. We were tight. We each also owned our own Video Rental stores, which we took to the next level, corporate, we, meaning me and my husband. He didn't cheat and wasn't into porn. It was a great life. We won the game we played together in middle class heaven, across the boards diagonal. He's just like Larry. Like father like son.

Those two would butt heads but in a good way. We had two daughters, twins. Brunettes. And I've spotted both I think. One is well aware of me already. I got her comm already, she's one of Nikki's kids in present time.

Me and my sisters <http://youtu.be/PYW42gCq0hM> I was the youngest and the phoebe character. He was the Cole character. He was my demon and I was his angel. We loved role playing games. That was our thing, we would see a movie and I'd be like I'm that person and he'd be I'm that person and we'd play that for a while and then start, change and stop or play another movie. We loved movies together, that was our thing. No costumes. Just us, we'd even stay in character when we went to out to dinner, outside of the house. It was fun and our game as a couple. Our 2D.

I had drama rama to handle with my sisters and their 2d shit and he had his own, with his family, Kim LMAO, his little sister. But it wasn't entheta. It all turned out fine. Nobody hit anybody or anything weird.

And he wasn't into pain and sex. He's not a criminal. He's just very loud. I picked up his enturbulation with Scott. I believe he and Scott are friends in present time. In that life Scott was married to my older sister so they were brother in laws.

I got his comm, his anger when I tweeted CPI Solutions. It was I'm gonna kill you Scott O'Malley. I was like woooooow, ok. Then it was like you were hiding her from me. It's third dynamic, money. At first I assumed what e-commerce? What?

Then later I got his other comms and computations on how he got me and me and him sailing away in a boat, he's just gonna throw his mermaid over his shoulders and off we go, sail into the sunset. Ok LMAO

The last one was I don't want fish hooks in my mermaid. Dude, I'm not your mermaid ok. He's reading my site LMAO. But he'll never ever have me this life LMAO.

And yes Larry, these bozos online just figure out how they can get me in their head but will never put it in the physical universe. They social profile and cookie cut in their head, they have no balls to do it in the real world. They are low on the tone scale. They are all over 40 and are fucked LMAO they never crossed the wall of fire nor contributed to the 4th dynamic, it's all them, them and them, or self absorbed idiots .

LMAO. I'm sure Leslie will laugh her ass off when she reads this. She's marcab too and knows how the game is played. These guys are also out of present time, O/W's on the 2d in present time.

And Leslie hates Scott O'Malley too, she was my mom in that life where Scott raped and killed me. He caused alot of pain to my family including her.

Again the good memories are behind the bad. My husband from the life above <http://youtu.be/yyaS8OdAySA> was behind all the bad memories with Scott. I don't think I have any good lives with Scott. I think it's all negative.

Thanks for hatting me Larry, you always said, anybody can cross the wall of fire just by using their ethics book. I love you both. Please Leslie, change your postulate and go with Larry to target 3 or get left behind to die on this rock.

The game starts next life. I'm good, I crossed the wall of fire, and man was it fun.

Ownership, low on the tone scale I'm at games, higher up LMAO A guy on the same page would never do that in his head, he'd meet me, he'd be in the same band as me, games.

Also in that life with Nikki I was a paid killer, that was my job, I got paid money, the big bucks to take people out of the game. I wasn't an artist. Ding, ding, ding. LMAO.

And I wore my piercings under my clothes and after 3 months when I started getting bigger, you know pregnant, I took them out LMAO. It was our game on the 2D. Only idiots read it and assumed LMAO. Fools or same shit different day.

And the different journey is he wants to marry a younger woman, he feels he's owed something cause he's a man or his serv fac, make wrong. After all that's all he's ever heard thru the media, the tv, radio etc etc cause he's a man, don't worry, you can always find a younger woman LMAO you've got time on your side LMAO You're clock is not ticking LMAO He never found me and I wasn't looking for him. So no harm done. Just asis or poof. Case gain for me, me and me.

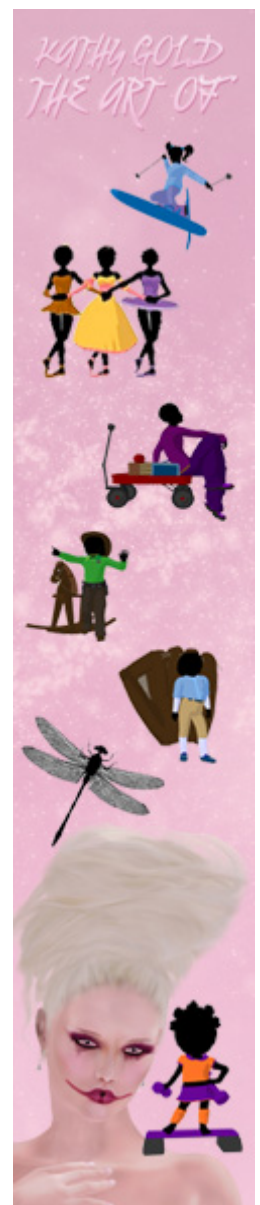

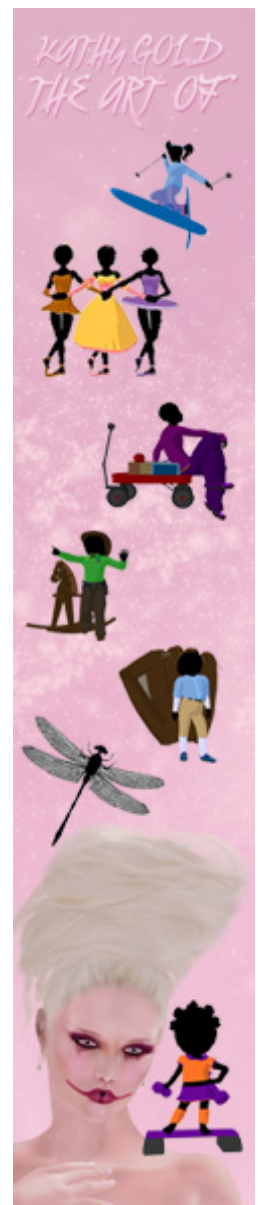

So while that might be true in regards to the men and their clocks not ticking, LMAO I have no kids and I'm not gonna have any this life LMAO and I'm not taking any financial responsibility for theirs. I've got time on my side too, again I'm a woman, I don't need sex LMAO. You'll all be dead from STD's LMAO antibiotics aren't working anymore. Restim city LMAO present time and past lives where they had them LMAO. Oh well, not my problem it will be his younger wife's problem to deal with LMAO

I explain here, cause these guys will never get in comm with me, they will never reach out and talk, communicate. This is what cowards do. I'm not an SP, so I'll give them confirmation so they can move on with their lives and when I do that, each time, I get great case gain. Not them. So I won or Ha ha.

Btw Larry, I'm on an open comm channel, my twitter account, it's my comm board. I'm wide open ok LMAO No covert ops here. I think Larry can have a good chuckle, he was in the army this life LMAO.

And yep, this is aberrated, again I don't play the aberrated 2d game unless I'm already married LMAO. Duh. Again, you don't know me, you're just restimmed off your own past lives and assume I'm somebody that I'm not.

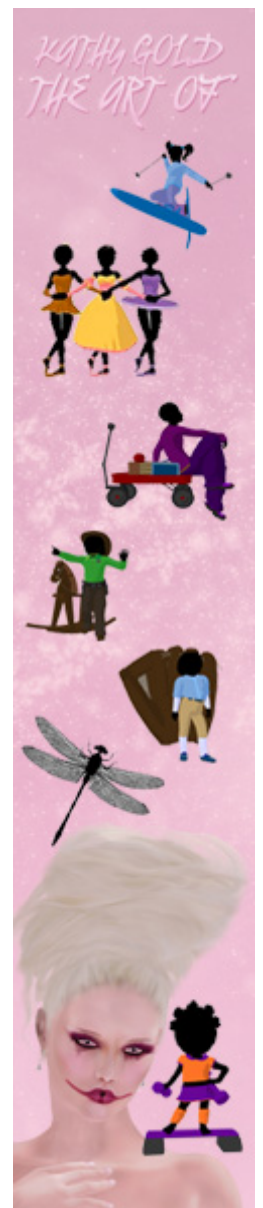

And don't worry Leslie, I'll keep outflowing until I pull in my soulmate this life. I get it, I have to go thru a bunch of bozo's to get to my one. See my personal blog, if you want to follow my adventures. I have a feeling I'll meet him in Scotland. Just a feeling, so I'm gonna go with the flow and have fun.

Life is an adventure and should be played not read.

What Scientology For You is About What Scientology For You is not about My Story by Kathy Gold

My Eval Of David Miscavige

He's 52, way past the point of no return, he's in psycholand. Nobody ever took responsibility for him, his serv fac, his make wrong. Not one person he surrounds himself with, not even his own wife. Buying expensive presents for each other is not taking responsibility for each other. Those are just gifts, objects. He micro manages, 1st sign, clue that's he's got control issues. Temper tantrums galore.

During the Lisa Mcpherson trial, he bitched and whined so much that the girl that was running the IAS, her solution to shut him up was a paid vacation in Scotland at a castle. The cost for that Castle, cause around the same time, I was looking at going there myself. The cost was $10k or more a week. I was at Mole Richardson at that time.

Nobody wrote this guy a program, nobody took responsibility for him or his case. He's a child and everybody around him flows power to his tantrums instead of putting his ethics in.

Everybody around him yeses him, yes sir, kisses his ass or should I say licks it. lol And all he does is reward people on gross income, his attention is focused on one thing. Making money.

In Amy's book, he hit Marc Yager, and then wanted to take responsibility for his actions, amends, his solution instead of making a wrong a right, hitting the guy, he threw down money, a dollar bill and apologized. Marc Yager, wouldn't accept the money as amends. His solution to problems is throwing money at it. He knows that's not how you apply conditions, he signed LRH's liability conditions formula for MSH's bullshit.

Even the IAS, at the time of the founder's death, there was no IAS, there was the HASI and it cost like $25.00 to be a member. There was no millions of dollars in donations. It was not that big of a deal to be a member. Now it's all about status, wealth and position.

That's not what this church was about, this church was about helping people not regging money.

When LRH died this church was in a power condition. It just needed to be expanded more. It was all set up for someone to run it. That was all. But instead of expanding it, continuing with the successful actions, David Miscavige violated the power condition. He assumed he was in power when he was in Non-E.

The first thing is not to change anything and he changed alot of things, for more than one reason, the main reason, money, himself, so he can be right. It's a weird thing to go around giving yourself credit in an interview. Per the other reports I read about him, he comes off arrogant, he doesn't grant anybody any beingness. He's also not an auditor and of course not an implanter, wholetrack psych.

In 1986, people in the Sea Org had kids, there was family time etc etc. He got rid of those things, to increase production and cut down on expenses but he didn't need to do that. That would be a danger condition not a power condition. The organization was in a power condition, he individually misapplied conditions for his main reason money. During that time, the Gross Income for the organization increased, it made him look really good and he drew all his confidence from that one thing. Money.

At that same time, that's when he started pulling in the reins on the mission holders as well. He was in danger, coming out of Non-E but the organization as whole was not in Non-E.

The people that were there allowed it. Their reason, I'm not gonna be responsible. They didn't want to be in charge, they let him be the main man at the top.

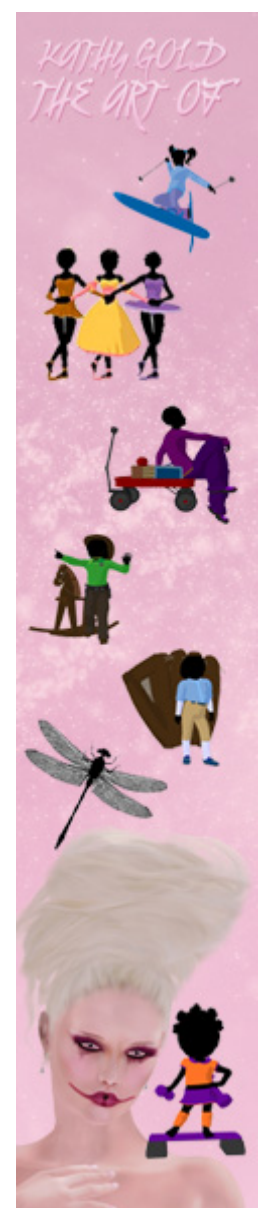

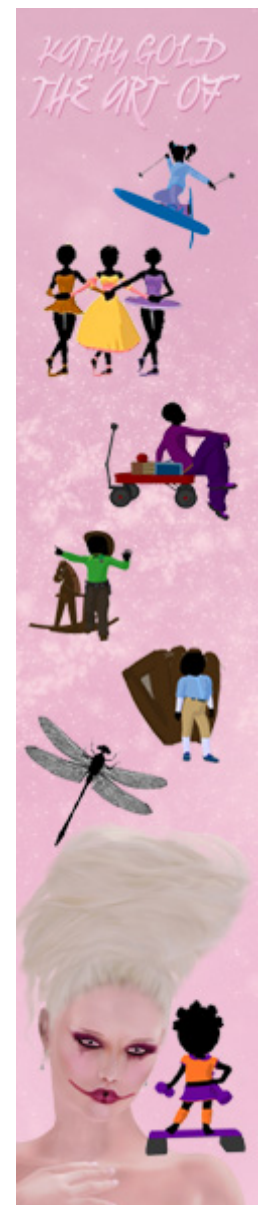

He instituted policy that cut the 2d line, Sea Org members could no longer have kids, the cost of handling it was a burden, if you join then no kids for you this life. If you had kids already or violated that, you had to go to a class 4 org, not a sea org church. That meant, you would now have to pay for your own rent, your own food, your own car, your own insurance, your own everything and still get that $25.00 a week. So, most of the Sea Org people either got 2 jobs or went on a post where they could earn a commission so that they could continue to be in the Sea Org and support their families.

He focused on increasing money, gross income. Short term it was fine, but not long term. He assumed, he had the technology, the holy scriptures and he would be fine. He's under the assumption that he who controls the tech, owns it. The founder left it, his research for mankind. The way to reg people was Division 6, it's all in the ED series, the Executive Director series, blue on white.

I read some of those policies. I was a div 6 reg at LADAY, you just tell people about it and if they want it, they sign up and do it. Not that big of a deal.

They made reg sessions like what you see at the car dealerships, where they put you in a room and then leave you there and won't let you leave until you buy the car. That's wrong and immoral. And violated LRH policy. He has no div 6 now, the front lines lol. It's all Div 2 or recurring customers. Nobody is looking for new public.

In David Miscavige's church, division 6 has been replaced with video screens instead of people. http://www.denverpost.com/investigations/ci_20921492/church-scientology-seeks-higher-profile-denver-new-church This is cookie cutter, or being herded like sheep. Sit there, watch this and if you have questions, just push the button and the video screen will answer your questions. But what if you have questions that are not part of the system here that he has set up? I guess, they will just walk out left feeling confused and mesmerized by all the glitz of high tech. And some, if they are on psych drugs will feel hypnotized. Scientology is not cookie cutter and neither are people. This is a violation of the OT levels, the Holy Scriptures.

Even the founder wore more than one hat in his organization. He put Scientology on the map. He wore all those hats that he wrote up, every single one of them, from the bottom up to the top. David Miscavige never wore any of those hats and has no clue what these people experience on these posts. So he disregards their communication. The founder himself, acknowledged everybody that wrote to him personally. He didn't blow them off like they do now. His comm lines were open.

Even the people up at Int Management have no clue, they only wear one hat for 20 or 30 years. Ok. That's gonna burn people out. Even the founder himself did mest work, he wasn't above it like David Miscavige. This organization has become snobby and intolerant.

When I was at the Pasadena Org, I went and helped them. We went to a park and they were giving free assists, volunteer ministers. The first problem we had was putting up the tent. The big yellow tent. Per the instructions, and communication from int management was that anybody can put those together, even 2 teenage girls and 1 guy. Ok, that was a lie. It took 7 of us, and I was the only female.

The new churches, each individual church is suppose to come up the conditions, this Ideal Org program is the ideal scene after the church has come up those conditions, has the money to purchase a building.

Having parishoners take their hard earned money to buy a building, real estate that they don't own is off policy and not Scientology. It's not part of our religion. The founder himself talked about how people were more important than buildings. These buildings are not cheap, they cost $10 million or more. That money could have been spent for these people to go up a bridge, obtain their spiritual freedom, help their communities flourish and prosper etc etc but instead, they are now broke and won't be doing anything but worrying about their survival. Some of these people donated their life savings to purchase these buildings and are too old to just turn it around. This was the last thing the founder wanted, he never wanted people to go broke and destitute for their religion, he had specific policy against this kind of stuff from occurring. He actually cared about his parishoners.

David Miscavige, knows how some of his parishoners have gone broke and destitute in helping his Ideal Org program become a reality. He doesn't care and he sleeps, just fine at night. He's cold as ice and has no compassion for his parishoner's problems, problems he created when he instituted fundraising to purchase a building. David Miscavige only values money, not human life and sure as shit not the life of his parishoners who are not doing well.

If they want their money back, this organization says, sorry, it's a donation. I was down at the Valley Org's new building fundraiser, where they were raising funds to purchase this building. They brought in people to sing while we all sat in the pews etc. It was a fun filled night of donations. Only one problem, it violated the OT levels themselves. Larry Roberts would talk about this to me. In the OT levels, it specifically talked about reverie, getting people singing and dancing, people feel great and get caught up in the moment.

At this function, they used reverie to get money out of people to buy a building. It violates their own holy scriptures, the OT levels. One woman got up, she was so happy to help, she tapped into her and her husband's life savings and pretty much donated it all. It was about $150k. I stood there and went wtf? I can see this coming a mile away in slow motion.

Where is that parishoner now? I suspect, crying, struggling in silence, nobody there to help her and her husband, they were both over 55, I believe in their 60's.

Why is one man deciding everybody's fate, their lives. Why is one man, controlling everybody's destiny. Why is one man controlling everybody's lives?

And better yet, why do all these people allow it. The valley org has already moved, how many times now?

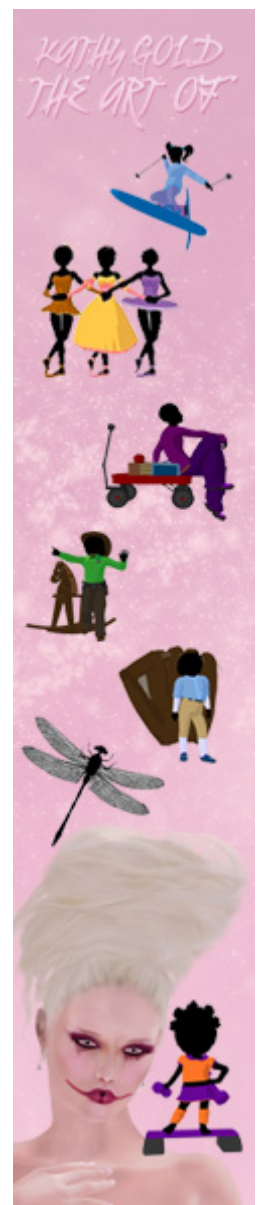

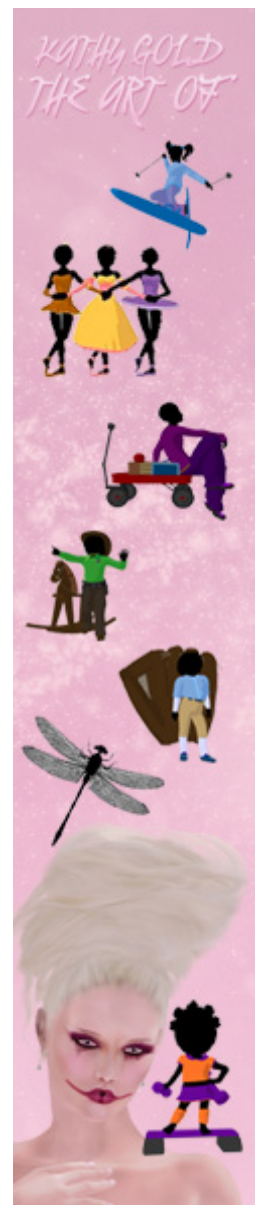

Why does that same man, not come through to help any orgs on this planet? The founder himself, when a church crashed, the gross income and was upside down on it's way out, he would step in and take money from his own pocket to help that church get back on track. But David Miscavige doesn't take any of his personal money that he has made and put it into these churches. Why is that?

Or how about putting his own money to buy these buildings that his corporation up at RTC owns, that's what they used to do when the founder was alive? Why are people donating money for this super power building that they don't own nor was it part of the bridge? The founder himself shelved that program. Why are all the women up at int management either whores, major out 2d, fucking people left and right like Gavin Potter's first wife, she went out 2d on him at least 3 times with other people up there or kissing ass?

Why is this guy micro managing an entire religion and his workers below him, there are like 5000 people or more that work worldwide etc etc.

Yet they are not expanding, great promo of churches but nobody leaves their church to promote and market their church or disseminate their religion.

So many outposts not short comings. What good have they done really in the last 10 years? Nothing. It's shrinking and nobody is taking the helm to turn it around. The Valley org's new Ideal building is still sitting there, they just finished purchasing it in 2008 or 2009 at $10 million dollars or whatever and now they have to do renovations. It's 2012 and still no renos. The valley org also moved their location.

In the finance series, there is a building fund, like 1% of gross income every week goes to that building fund, it's so you can buy a building lol. But now people are donating their money to purchase this instead of purchasing services.

Off LRH policy. They are not operating on the founder's policy, green on white, blue on white, etc etc. They are operating on David Miscavige's policy under the guise of the founder. Basically using his name to do whatever the fuck they want.

And there is no government organization or anybody to tell. Sure you can go to court, but give me a fuckin break, you know how much attorneys fees cost, just to put these people's ethics in, to put them back on the rails, not worth it. Nobody in their right mind would spend millions of their hard earned money to put their ethics in. Unless of course you are a billionaire and have nothing else to do lol.

David Miscavige can't get his own ethics in. The founder put his own ethics in, he didn't need some woman or group to do it for him lol.

And on the subject of ethics, the ethics office is there to help people, continue going up a bridge, to obtain their spiritual freedom. Not ram shit down people's throats. It's an extra, added service that comes included with each course and auditing you purchase, a freebie or exchange in abundance.

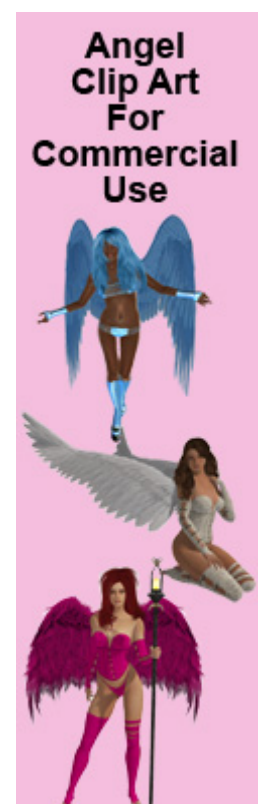

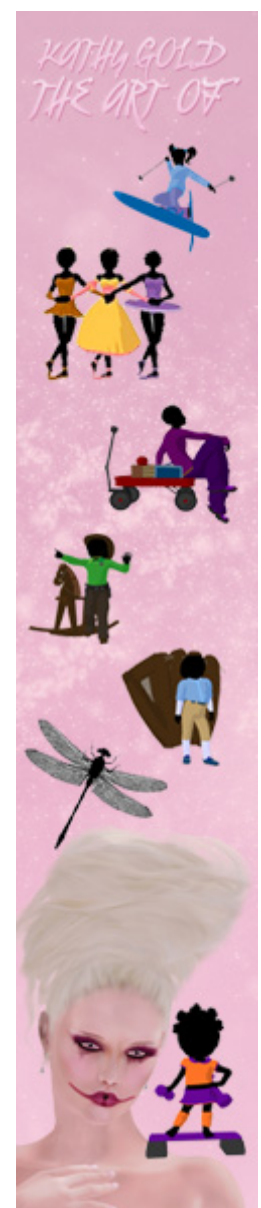

Sometimes people need help, guidance, direction. That's what the ethics office is for.

I had a friend, Christine, I knew her since 1981 and she a tried Scientology, she asked for a refund when they routed her to the ethics department. It was to help her, she didn't want to take any responsibility for her transgressions in present time that caused her to be late for course. She had other problems going on and she did not want to confront her own out ethics in that area. So instead of applying ethics to her life with the help of the ethics officer which was a free service provided to her for her $100.00 she spent or less. She asked for a refund and she got it. They refunded her money.

Christine won't be obtaining her spiriutal freedom this life or the next. She's not interested in obtaining her spiritual freedom, cause over her exteriorization. It's not her game. Her game was just to get married, be a mom and a housewife. I'm sure she will find the right guy that complements her.

What Scientology For You is About What Scientology For You is not about My Story by Kathy Gold

Psychiatry in Present Time

Is based on making money. Not solving problems or actually curing their clients, if they did that, they would not have any patients. People would be happy and not addicted to psych drugs lol.

The general public goes to shrinks, they are trained and taught to seek help from these so called experts and medical professionals. But who puts their ethics in when they have violated their code of ethics, their code of conduct?

Nobody, all you have is court. Per the laws on the books, they have the power over average, normal, people. They decide who is crazy and who is not and they sure as fuck don't take any responsibility or accountability for their actions including mistakes. Nobody puts their ethics in. The usual line is, misdiagnosis. Oops, here, take another pill, that will handle it lol.

I ran into Randy Bronte, a friend from elementary school, when I was at London Financial, Larry Roberts, the crew from Hanover, left and started their own company. I spoke to Larry and he said, come on over, you can be a loan officer, you'll make lot's of money to go up your bridge. So while I was there, I ran into Randy in the hallway and we had a nice little talk. He told me, he went to college and was gonna go into this field, it was his major. He wanted to help people. He switched his major, I asked him why? He said cause, they are taught in College that if you cure your patients, they won't come back, so you'll go out of business. So you have to not cure them, so they keep coming back and you will have a long prosperous career. Randy thought that was unethical, he was like I can't do that, it's not cool. To lie to people, to make shit up, just so he could pay his mortgage, his expenses etc etc. So he switched careers, he decided he wanted to save the environment, help the planet. So he started a non profit organization for that.

These are the basics they are taught in College. They are not taught how to really help others solve their problems. They are not taught about past lives and how that effects their problems in present time nor are they taught about the GE - Genetic Entity. These two things are left out of the equation,so they will always get it wrong.

In present time, meaning the here and now, the psych hospitals are wearing the hat of Implant Stations.

They have inherited that hat. Anybody can go for free treatment, free room and board and food, and then once the money has run out, back on the streets they go. Their problems aren't solved, meaning get them working, producing, making money for themselves, paying their rent, food, solving their own problems.

In 1998 when I was in there, I just observed and compared it to what it was in 2008, the conditions of the facility itself was extremely bad, the beds, the rooms, nothing new in terms of equipment. The food changed, I noticed they were well aware of Celiac, the one thing big.pharma can't cure with a pill lol. It's an actual disease, gluten. They have to give you a gluten free diet. But they fuck that up too, cause if they don't have it, you have to eat what they give you or you don't eat. I told them I have food allergies.

But the good news is, you can sue the hospital for incompetence. There's also no cameras in there, they should put them into every room, so each patient can be monitored.

The first time I was in there, the first doctor, freaked me out, I saw, him going into this other patient's room, and she was strapped in, she was out of it and he appeared to be very touchy, feely, a little too much if you know what I mean. At one point he looked like he was touching her, in her private area. Nobody stopped him.

I thought about it, for all I know, I was molested while unconscious. I read the psych report, the first one. It gave me clues.

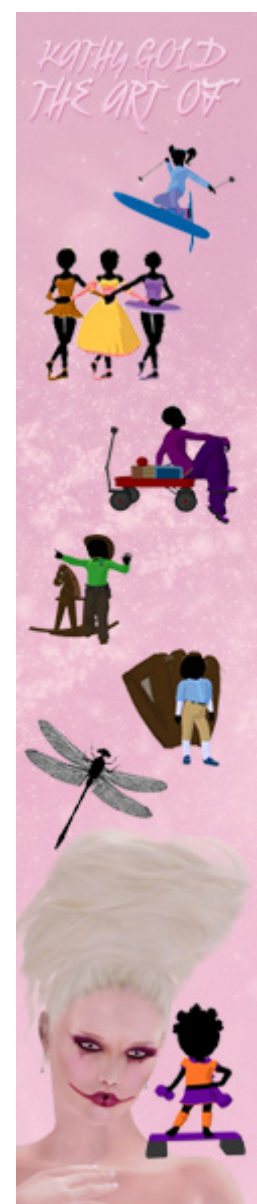

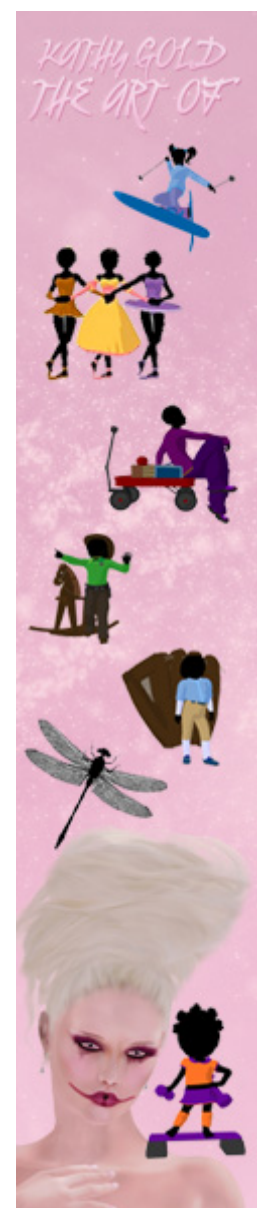

How the fuck would I know, I was unconscious. I had just woken up after the doctor was in my room. The 2nd time I was in there, I told one of the psych nurses, male, he had a dragon tat, I told him, I'm celibate, I didn't want anyone coming into my room, trying to rape me etc etc, he said, no prob, and kept an eye on me, made sure nobody came into my room.

Now had my mother and step father wore their hats as actual parents, maybe then, we could have found out what really happened. They were too busy running game with OSA to give a shit about my well being. This is how evil nazi's really are. They didn't give a fuck about me, only how to get money from this church.

They don't go to church, they don't believe in God. The only person in my family besides me that does, was my dad. Since my father, my mother never reached for religion, has never stepped inside a church or temple. That was my dad. He took us, on a religious journey along time ago lol.

So in present time, don't trust anyone, self containment is the order of the day. Don't go to anybody for help, no police, no hospitals, no church, nobody. Do it yourself, in your own home. Be your own auditor.

Then drop the bod and get to target 3. Nobody here on planet earth is worthy of trust. They are in lower conditions, they only care about one thing, money. Don't try to change their minds, just go, uh huh lol. Blend in, and go on your way.

In the grand scheme of things, just know, this is what's suppose to happen, no need to even be in a 2D, what for, to get used for money lol. Forget it, all out ethics, out exchange assholes. Ewwww ok.

Don't worry about the people within the church, just get to target 3, each has their own journey, their own path. Tom Cruise and David Miscavige, they are fucked ok, and they know it. After they are dead, their souls, along with others will get in-fused and en-tombed into this rock for the next 1 billion years. People often wondered why it was a billion year sea org contract and not 1 million. LRH added 1 billion years to our future. So all the assholes that fucked us and mankind including Nikki Sixx, Sumner Redstone, Rupert Murdoch, Tom Cruise, David Miscavige, my mother by DNA and her husband etc etc, we won't see them for 1 billion years lol.

You can't kill a soul, but you can infuse and en-tomb it into a rock. They are all degraded beings lol and don't have cause over their exteriorization. Just know, that was the past, new games to play, games never played before. How fun will that be, to not see it coming lol New obstacles, new hurdles, but old souls, my soulmate. Too cool. New parents, real parents who love me, are not using me for something lol A real loving home. A real federation that cares about it's people. Real psychs that care about the general public, real police that save lives, real teachers that care about students instead of trying to fuck them.

Btw, this woman is not the exception to the rule. There is more female pedafiles http://www.huffingtonpost.com/2012/06/08/erika-susan-perdue-socialite-child-porn-charges-texas_n_1581619.html

When I was in there the 1st time, it was the year 1998, I was in the computer industry, internet industry lol Some of the psych nurses, females, they were going on and on about the year 2000 and how that was gonna end everything lol. I wasn't introverted, they asked me, point blank, aren't you afraid and I was like no, I had to explain to them, how shit works lol. They did it on purpose, they assumed it would introvert me, easier to control lol I had to laugh. What a bunch of bozos, going around doing this to patients.

It was unethical. There was an old lady there, like 80 years old, she was so scared, she literally ran over to me, and grabbed me, she wouldn't let go of my arm, her IV was still in her arm. A lot of scared people in there were coming towards me lol. They felt safe in my presence. Just by being myself. And I have no degree as an expert or nurse or doctor lol I'm just a wholetrack psych.

I remember, another woman, after I got off the phone, she overheard me, she was black, she got on that phone and said to the person she was talking to, you do whatever the fuck you have to do, just get me the hell out of here ok. she was on it lol she did not waste anytime, she too saw what was happening and what those doctors and nurses were doing to patients.

Basically they got paid to restim the patients, make them feel scared, introverted, that life would end, cease to exist, basically restimming people on OT3, when the universe ended.

As for Bio Psych Drugs lol My DNA won't bond with it lol but everybody else's will. Oh well, huh lol It will re circulate in their body like LSD and will constantly keep that individual out of present time, introverted, each time they try to exteriorize or exteriorize, they will hit implants. They will either die or not. Run on them or not. Get sick or not. So many variables, too many to count. lol

Sure, people will be confused, lower conditions. Won't understand etc etc, but that's not my religion's problem lol That's psychiatry's problem, they wanted the hat of handling man, now they have it lol. They are responsible and accountable, for all the abuses, mistakes, etc etc. There is a flip side, by taking government money, they as a group are beholden to honor their word, their promise to the human race lol.

And well, at the end of the day, each individual that didn't do their amends or took responsibility and accountability for their mistakes, abuses of power, unethical behavior, etc and those mistakes, abuses of power, unethical behavior etc lead to a bigger mess lol. Oh O, oh Shit lol That person's soul is fucked for 1 billion years.

Now that is Justice, Karmic big time. Nobody is off limits.

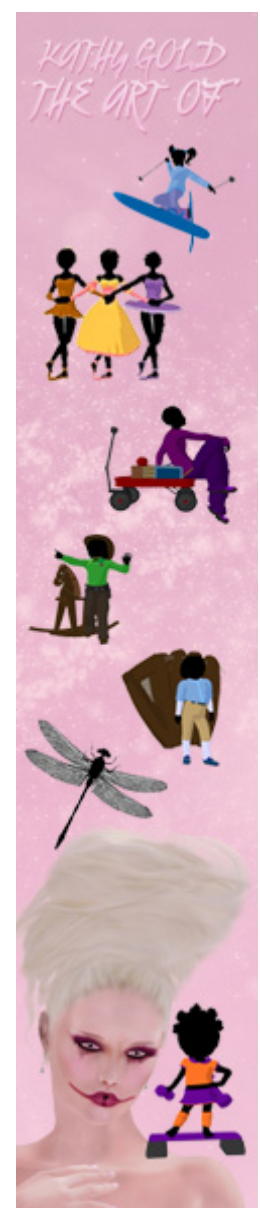

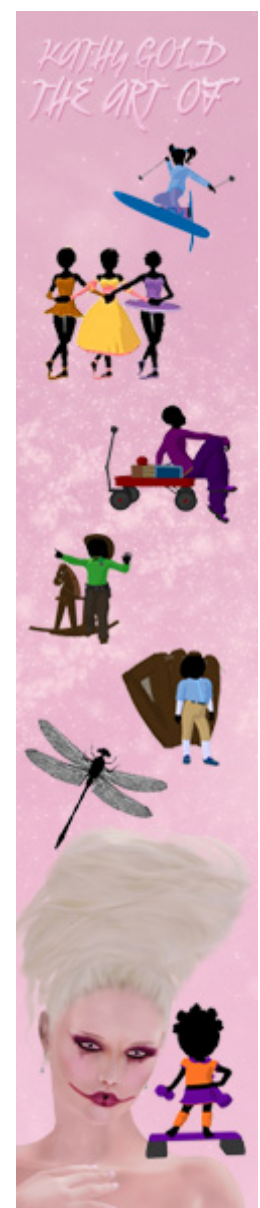

And I can honestly say, I had nothing to do with that lol I don't work in that industry, but everybody else that does will have to be responsible and accountable for the decisions and actions they made, including Big Pharma. You think side effects are bad now lol just wait, it will get better. It will kill people at a younger age.

The continuation of the status quo, that dwindling spiral. So, no more procreation, GMOs and more people dying, well that handles the over population issue but at the same time, you just wiped out the human race, mankind, the 4th Dynamic. And I am not responsible or accountable. The people that did are. They will have to answer to God. Their path, their journey to walk. They knew, they have all the medical studies, and they still do the wrong thing. One thing about Big Pharma, you can always count on them to do the wrong thing, not the right thing lol. Their souls come with a price, even the receptionist that answers their phone. They will find out at the end, the bitter end. Not our problem, they made this mess for money, they brought this into mainstream for money, for their business, their industry. <http://youtu.be/xcStSJSciew>

David Miscavige and Marty Rathbun couldn't figure out why the last main thing LRH did was The Way To Happiness lol They couldn't figure it out. They are not wholetrack psychs, implanters lol.

People put way too much faith into science and not enough faith in God, they put their hands, lives in others. It's too late for mankind, as this planet slowly dies, so will mankind, the 4th Dynamic. Oh well, the people that have no ethics and morals cause they sold it, along with their soul for what else, money lol are fucked. The rest, we move forward to Target 3. The Good Go Free.
